

AP U.S. Gov: Unit 4: Guided Reading Lineberry pp. 400-436

Step 1: Grab a constitution or pull one up on your phone.

In which article can you find the information about the Executive Branch? Article: _____

What are the three qualifications for becoming President?

What are the three qualifications for becoming Vice President?

List 5 powers of the Executive enumerated (expressed) in the Constitution:

When can the President fill vacancies in office?

What is the purpose of the State of the Union to Congress?

Under what circumstances can the President be impeached?

Go to Article I: S7.C2. Describe the process of the ways in which a bill can become a law without the signature of the President.

What does the 22nd Amendment do to the Presidency? What about the 25th Amendment?

Step 2: Read the “Powers of the President” article and answer the following:

Describe the President’s power of persuasion and its importance:

What is logrolling?

Identify and describe the three powers/actions of the President that are NOT enumerated in the Constitution (implied):

Describe the following roles of the President:

Party Leader	Chief Legislator	Chief Diplomat
Commander in Chief	Chief Executive	Head of State/Head of Government